Frontend developer with four years building fast, responsive React products - Next.js or TanStack Start for apps, Astro for content-led sites. I work from the design file through to launch, usually inside a studio team alongside designers and backend engineers, and I care most about the states nobody screenshots: loading, empty, error and slow connections.

EXPERIENCE

Inflection Studio FRONTEND DEVELOPER · FULL-TIME, REMOTE 2024 - Present

Frontend for a Nairobi digital growth partner that builds brands, products and platforms — taking designs from the file to production for its clients and its own site, in whatever stack the project calls for, and staying on for the releases after launch.

Techliana FRONTEND DEVELOPER · RETAINED 2023 - Present

Part of the engineering team on a retained basis: I look after a set of live systems — bug fixes, new features and updates as they're needed — and pick up the frontend build when a new project comes in.

Freelance FRONTEND DEVELOPER Mar 2022 - Present

Building responsive React applications - Next.js and, more recently, TanStack Start - for clients across automotive, education and non-profit work, with Astro for content-led sites. Usually from the design file through to launch, and often staying on for the second release.

Mjengo Smart Technology FRONTEND DEVELOPER, INTERN Mar - May 2023

Worked on dynamic web applications in React, Next.js and Tailwind, and spent the internship tightening performance and code standards across the product.

SELECTED WORK

Click Tenders Africa 2026 Sands of the East 2026

A tender marketplace for Africa's built environment - contractors discover construction and infrastructure tenders across Kenya and East Africa, track the ones that matter and follow them through to a bid.
